

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

A CURATED NEWS UPDATE FROM THE GATHERING PLACE

ISSUE 6: SEPTEMBER 24, 2019

Transgender rights are under scrutiny--and those in poverty will suffer the most. Plus, what does the future of childcare on college campuses look like? Also, why is the US so reluctant to promote universal childcare in the first place? Keep reading to find out.

"Women in the News" is a bi-weekly publication of The Gathering Place and seeks to keep our subscribers informed of the issues facing women, transgender individuals, and their children across the nation and the world.

NEWSMAKERS

Colleges Could Do More to Help Student Parents Pay for Child Care, Watchdog Says-- NPR

"More than 1 in 5 college students in the U.S. are raising kids. That's more than 4 million undergraduates, and they are disproportionately women and people of color. Of those students, more than half will leave school without getting a degree." Read the full story here.

Transgender Medicaid Patients Face Coverage Barriers Despite Law -- Bloomberg Law

"There is now a consensus in the medical community that these procedures are safe and necessary, which is night and day from the thinking 50 years ago." Read here.

When Feminism Supports Trans Rights, Everybody Wins -- The Guardian

"These movements aren't disconnected. On the contrary, the reason the wider LGBT movement in Iceland has been so successful is thanks to the feminist movement, which has inspired and fought alongside them." Read more here.

PERSPECTIVES

Statement from NLIHC on The Council of Economic Advisors' Report on Homelessness in America-- National Low Income Housing Coalition

"Not only is criminalization of homelessness unconstitutional and cruel, it wastes public resources that should otherwise be spent on solutions." Read the full editorial here.

STILL RELEVANT

Why the US Has Long Resisted Universal Child Care-- The New York Times

"The debate persists because in the United States, the resistance to public child care has never been mainly about economics. It has been rooted in a moral argument — that the proper place for mothers (at least certain ones) is at home with their children." Read the full article here.

BRIGHT SIDE

During her Emmy Acceptance Speech, Patricia Arquette Advocated for Trans Rights. Here's Why. -- The Lily

"I'm in mourning every day of my life, Alexis, and I will be for the rest of my life for you, until we change the world so that trans people are not persecuted." Read more here.

Art Restart Wins Audience Favorite at Trout Tank-- Art Restart Blog

After rigorous pitch training, followed by presenting for over 100 Colorado entrepreneurs, investors, lenders, and business leaders, Art Restart is the winner of Trout Tank Audience Favorite. Read more here.

The Gathering Place®
a refuge for rebuilding lives

"Women in the News" is a bi-weekly publication of The Gathering Place and seeks to keep our subscribers informed of the issues facing women, transgender individuals, and their children across the nation and the world. If you have news you would like to see featured, please contact Kate Mazzotta, Communications Manager, at kate@tgdenver.org.

The Gathering Place is a life-changing resource for women, transgender individuals, and their children who are experiencing poverty and homelessness. We support this community by providing meals, safety, family care, education, mental health referrals, job assistance, and a variety of other resources for free. While we call those we serve members, no fees are ever charged.

Learn more about our work at tgdenver.org.

Know someone who might be interested in this publication? Have them subscribe here.

Donate

